⚠️ PRECISIÓN HISTÓRICA (para no recibir correcciones en comentarios)

- La tablilla que leyó George Smith (Tablet XI) es una copia del siglo VII a.C. de la biblioteca de Asurbanipal en Nínive. La historia del diluvio mesopotámico es mucho más antigua (versiones de ~1800 a.C., como Atrahasis). Por eso MG-27 dice "Mesopotamian flood story · c. 1800 BC" y no le pone fecha a la tablilla de Smith.
- El guion lo dice bien: "that same story appears on a clay tablet. A thousand years before the Bible". Se refiere a la historia, no a esa copia en particular.
